NEWSLETTER – June 25, 2004

LOUISVILLE REUNION

The Tri-States Chapter 9 – 12 September, 2004, will host the 57th 34th Infantry Division Association National Reunion. The reunion will take place at the Executive West Hotel 830 Philips Lane Louisville, KY 40209. Reservation forms enclosed.

The Tri-States Chapter is planning a whale of a good time. They are dedicating this reunion to Homer Ankrum the author of the best book on the 34th Division – Dogfaces who smiled through Tears.

A REUNION TRIBUTE FOR Homer Ankrum

Over 1300 personal interviews, 650 pages of recorded experiences. The result brings the reader a closeness with the soldiers who tramped thru the history years of 1940-1946. The pages of “Dogfaces Who Smiled Thru Tears” tells a realistic story of the men of the 34th Division. Homer Ankrum was one of these men, who wrote about and shared their experiences. No where is any book, written by any historian will you read the heroism and heart break of the men in the front line trenches of war.

With the above in mind the Tri-State Chapter and the 34th Division Association will dedicate this year’s September Reunion to the memory of Homer Ankrum.

I know there are a lot of stories and memories in our organization. We would like to get these words on paper and come up with a reunion tribute that leaves a record of how much Homer’s words mean to all of us who served with him in the Red Bull Division. We are all not writers and find it difficult to put these stories on paper, but if you were to send a note or tell us these stories of your feelings we would put them together in a booklet of some form that could be presented to Homer’s family at the reunion.

I feel the majority of our membership have read his book or have heard his tape “The March and History of the Red Bull Legions”. We are interested in all comments but especially in the comments of the men that Homer interviewed for his book.

Please give serious thought to your experiences and tell them as if you were leaving a legacy to your family. Or you may wish to put a copy to put with your book “Dogfaces Who Smiled Thru Tears.”

I request that you get your information to me. Please send to:

HELP WANTED

We thank those that have given us their stories of army life. We still are looking for books, notes, journals, comments and the like. These are filed in the Iowa Gold Star Museum archives for researchers and casual reading – to get the other side of the War.

Does anyone know Alexander “Gillie” Maxwell?? The family wants to know more about his military service – he joined the 34th 3-12-43. Please write niece Jackie Maxwell Goodrich, 818 Sue Grove Rd, Breta MD 21221-1834. 410-686-8118.

Ben and Jon Abbott are collecting stories and memorabilia from World War II and are especially interested in the 34th Inf Division. Anyone interested in helping them with their project contact Ben Abbott at 8600 SW 139th Terrace, Miami, FL 33158 benjabbott@hotmail.com

WWII Monument Dedication

Quite a few Red Bulls attended the World War II dedication. They had a very good time. Much better than the time they spent together 1941-1946!
